

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ZPIZZA IN ALPHARETTA BECOMES FEED THE FIREFIGHTERS STATION #3

Restaurant Will Provide emergency food service to aid First-Responders at NO COST

Danny Kim, owner/operator of the ZPIZZA in Alpharetta on Windward Parkway has agreed to become Station #3 of Feed The Firefighters Foundation (FTF). ZPIZZA is the third restaurant to become a member of this organization and the first to participate in the state of Georgia. As a member of FTF, ZPIZZA will supply local firefighters and other first-responders in the Alpharetta & Milton areas with food at NO COST in emergency situations.

In addition to delivering food in emergencies, ZPIZZA will give firefighters a discount at his restaurant.

FTF is a non-profit organization located in Raleigh, NC that was founded in 1999 to provide food and other nourishment to firefighters and other first-responders in emergency situations. The other FTF restaurants are Barry's Café in Cary, NC and Assaggio's in Fuquay Varina, NC.

ZPIZZA has been open in Alpharetta over one year and Mr. Kim plans to open at least two more restaurants in the future.
